ST. PAUL SOCIETY, AGONA ASAFO

CITATION OF APPRECIATION

IN HONOUR OF

► Honourable Kojo Nti

ON THE OCCASION OF THE 2ND ANNUAL HOMECOMING & THANKSGIVING SERVICE, 2025.

"May the Lord give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed." - Psalm 20:4

In deep gratitude and Christian fellowship, The Methodist Church Ghana, St. Paul Society, Agona Asafo, proudly present this Citation of Honour and Appreciation to you, a devoted distant member whose love for the Church and unwavering commitment to its growth and development remain exemplary and inspiring.

Your remarkable support to the Church even from afar has consistently strengthened our ministry and uplifted the entire Society. At every stage of our development, you have demonstrated a heart of generosity, compassion, and genuine dedication to the work of God.

Most notably, in the early part of this year, when a heavy rainstorm ripped off the roof of our church building, you rose to the occasion with exceptional speed and kindness. You single-handedly funded and oversaw the repair of the ripped roofing sheets, restoring the House of God and preserving our place of worship. This sacrificial act of love brought relief, hope, and joy to the entire congregation, and it stands as a testimony of your deep commitment to God's work.

In addition, your continual support during our harvest programs has been outstanding. Whenever the Church calls upon you, whether to serve as chairman, supporter, or special guest of honour, you respond generously, ensuring that your presence and contribution strengthen the success of every event.

Your benevolence and service to the advancement of God's kingdom make you a blessing to this Society and a shining example of Christian stewardship. You are a true embodiment of the spirit of giving and the heart of a true helper in the Lord's vineyard.

On this special occasion, the Methodist Church Ghana, St. Paul Society, Agona Asafo, joyfully honour and celebrate you for your immeasurable generosity and your continued support to the mission and vision of the Church.

*May the Almighty God richly reward you for your kindness.
May He enlarge your territory, strengthen your household, and cause His blessings to overflow upon your life.
Ayekoo, Honourable! God richly bless you.*

Presented this day, 28th December, 2025.
